

North Park University Johnson Center for Science and Community Life Timeline of Events

June 2011 – Campaign North Park Kick Off with $42 million fundraising goal for Johnson Center

February 2012 – Architectural firm, VOA's William Ketcham describes preliminary building plans to the Board of Trustees

May 2012 – North Park University Board of Trustees Confirms Decision to Build New Science, Community Life Center, name building for alumni Nancy and G. Timothy Johnson

June 2012 – Site Preparation Underway

October 2012 – Groundbreaking Celebration for the Nancy and G. Timothy Johnson Center for Science and Community Life

May 2013 – Campaign North Park nearly complete, Foundation complete and steel infrastructure being put in place, Trustees and students sign steel beam

February 2014 – Future North Park students and dedicated University supporters got a sneak peek inside the Johnson Center

August 2014 – Construction complete and classes commence

September 2014 – Dedication Celebration and Symposium open the Johnson Center