ASSISTANT/ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR OF COUNSELING PSYCHOLOGY

Department: School of Professional Studies

Position Summary: The School of Professional Studies (SPS) at North Park University seeks applications for a full-time (9-month), tenure-track faculty member in the Master’s of Counseling Psychology Program (MACP) at the rank of Assistant or Associate Professor to begin August 2020. SPS is seeking a candidate who will contribute to the continued growth of the program especially as it seeks CACREP accreditation.

The successful candidate will teach 24 semester credit hours per year based on his/her qualifications and needs of the program. Additional responsibilities include advising and mentoring students through their progression in the MACP program, implementation of a scholarly agenda, and participation in SPS team meetings, university wide service and events. Rank and salary are commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Essential Qualifications:

- Ph.D. or Ed.D. in Counselor Education
- Previous teaching experience in higher education
- Licensed professional counselor or eligible for licensure as a mental health counselor
- Actively engaged in the counseling profession
- Knowledge of and experience with CACREP standards
- Maintain an active membership to a recognized professional counseling association (American Counseling Association, ACA preferred)
- Outstanding oral and written communication skills
- Ability to incorporate the university’s city-centered, intercultural, and Christian core values into teaching and service
Desired Qualifications:

- Graduate of a CACREP accredited program
- Evidence of advocacy/professional service, research or scholarly activities in counseling.
- Experience teaching in an accelerated learning format

This individual will report to the Dean of the School of Professional Studies (SPS) and will work closely with other faculty and staff in SPS.

Application Instructions

Interested candidates should review the North Park Faculty Application and prepare of letter of intent, a curriculum vitae, the required essays within the faculty application, unofficial transcripts from each college attended, teaching evaluations, and should arrange for three letters of recommendation to be sent independently. Candidates will only be considered if all required materials are submitted.

All materials should be sent electronically to:

Lori Scrementi, Dean of the School of Professional Studies
North Park University
3225 W. Foster Ave.
Box 33
Chicago, IL 60625-4895
lmscrementi@northpark.edu

NOTE: Nothing in this job description restricts the supervisor’s right to assign or reassign duties and responsibilities to this job at any time.

About North Park: Founded in 1891, North Park University is a Christian university of over 3,200 students from around the country and world. The institution is owned by the Evangelical Covenant Church and seeks applicants for employment with a personal commitment to ethnic diversity, the city, and our mission of Christian higher education. We are an equal opportunity employer and encourage underrepresented groups to apply.