Course Description:

This course will demonstrate by explanation, conversation, and modeling how the Evangelical Covenant Church (ECC) does theology. The course will cover key theological affirmations and commitments of the ECC, and students will learn how the theology of the ECC helps form its identity and life.

Course Objectives

Through the course, the students will:

1. Understand the Covenant's theological heritage as an apostolic, catholic, reformation and evangelical church.
2. Understand, interpret, and contextualize the Covenant Affirmations.
3. Understand how the Covenant reads Scripture and how to contextualize it in a local ministry setting.
4. Understand and articulate the theological basis for the Covenant's positions on topics such as atonement, sacraments, ordination, justice, sexuality, anti-racism, and women in ministry.
5. Understand how the Covenant's theological character informs and shapes its faithful response to the whole Gospel ("God's glory, neighbor's good").
6. Discover the theological richness of ECC resources such as the Covenant Hymnal, the Covenant Book of Worship, and Resolutions.
7. Become familiar with the breadth of theological perspectives found within the diversity of the ECC.

Assessments

All assessments should be submitted through Canvas as .pdf files.

1. Preparation (pre-course work)

Due May 21 This We Believe: Covenant Affirmations (available on Canvas). Write 3-5 page review of the book and post it on Canvas, answering these questions:

- A. How does the book coordinate or confirm, or fail to coordinate or confirm, what you know of the Evangelical Covenant Church?
- B. What do you find refreshing or helpful?
- C. What do you not understand or feel that you need to reflect on more?

2. Class Participation (attendance and participation in all class sessions)

Because of the intensive time frame of the class, students are expected to attend all class sessions. Please plan schedules accordingly.

3. Final Essays: Due Monday July 10

Choose TWO of the following 6 questions which make application of a theological topic to ministry. All essays should interact with the course presentations, discussions, and reading material as appropriate.

1. How does the Covenant's affirmation of the centrality of Scripture relate to any of the following topics: women in ministry, anti-racism, or atonement? Explain and connect both the Covenant's view of the Bible and of the topic you choose.
2. How does the Covenant's affirmation of Christian freedom relate to the Covenant's position on baptism? Explain and connect both the Covenant's view of freedom and of baptism.
3. How did pietism contribute to Covenant theology? Identify some pietist theological distinctives and explain how they shape Covenant thinking and

- practice today including its heart for social justice.
4. What is the nature and mission of the church? Discuss the relationship between the whole mission of the church (affirmation #3) and the church as the fellowship of believers (affirmation 4).
 5. Develop a theology of the necessity of new birth in relation to one of the other affirmations and one resolution. Feel free to be creative and expand on themes discussed in class or the readings.
 6. Discuss how the six affirmations interact and coordinate with one another. Why is each important and how do they fit together to shape and guide the ECC today?

Essay Guidelines:

Essays should be 1,500 words each, or 3,000 words total for both essays (not counting reproducing the question). Double-space, with 1 inch margins all around. Your name and the page number should appear at the top right of each page (your computer can do this automatically). Include the question number; you do not need to type out the question, but it's fine if you do. Use 12 point fonts and a serif font such as Times New Roman. Use good citations showing you read the material on your topic. Footnotes are not necessary but cite quotations or references in parentheses in the text. Do not use long quotations from source materials. Please use gender inclusive language when referring to people.

Grading Policy

Grades for participation and assignments will be weighted as follows:

- Preparation report – 10%
- Attendance & Participation – 30%
- Final Essays – 60% (30% each)

Academic Honesty

In keeping with our Christian heritage and commitment, North Park University is committed to the highest possible ethical and moral standards. Just as we will constantly strive to live up to these high standards, we expect our students to do the same. To that end, cheating of any sort will not be tolerated. Students who are discovered cheating will receive a failing grade on the assignment and are subject to discipline up to and including failure of a course and expulsion. Our definition of cheating includes but is not limited to:

1. Plagiarism – the use of another's work as one's own without giving credit to the individual. This includes using materials from the internet.
2. Copying another's answers on an examination.
3. Deliberately allowing another to copy one's answers or work.
4. Signing an attendance roster for another who is not present.

For additional information, see the Seminary Catalog located online Seminary Academic Catalog (pp. 25–27).

Incomplete policy

If, due to extenuating circumstances a student anticipates s/he will be unable to complete coursework within the allotted time, that student must submit the request form for a grade of incomplete to the course instructor before the last week of class clearly stating the reason(s) for this request. Overscheduling and/or lack of self-discipline are not considered extenuating circumstances. If the request is timely and meets the criteria, the grade for that class will be listed as “I” until the last day of the following semester. If coursework is not submitted by the last day of the following semester the listing of “I” will automatically be changed to “F.”

STUDENT RESOURCES

We are here to help you. If at any point you need clarification beyond what is already stated in the syllabus or want to discuss the reading, lectures, discussions, or assignments, please ask. We are happy to talk with you.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Your experience in this class is important to us. North Park is committed to creating inclusive and accessible learning environments consistent with federal and state law. If you have already established your accommodations, please share your accommodation letter with us so we can discuss how your accommodations will be implemented in this course. If you have not yet established services and have a temporary health condition or permanent disability that requires accommodations, please email the Disability Access Specialist or contact by phone (773-244-5737). Student Engagement facilitates the interactive process that establishes reasonable accommodations.

TITLE IX

Students who believe they have been harassed, discriminated against, or involved in sexual violence should contact the Dean of Students (773-244-5565) or Director of Human Resources (773-244-5599) for information about campus resources and support services, including confidential counseling services. As a member of the North Park faculty, we are concerned about the well-being and development of our students, and are available to discuss any concerns.

Faculty are legally obligated to share information with the University’s Title IX coordinator in certain situations to help ensure that the student’s safety and welfare is being addressed, consistent with the requirements of the law. These disclosures include but are not limited to reports of sexual assault, relational/domestic violence, and stalking. Please refer to North Park’s Safe Community site for contact information and further details.
