

STEM Supplemental Award Essay

Note: This essay has a limit of 1000 characters w/ spaces.

I. Introduction

- a. What is your background in STEM?
- b. What unique perspectives do you bring in the field?
- c. Where will you be studying abroad?

II. Addressing STEM-related research

- a. What kind of research will you be pursuing on your study abroad program?
- b. Why is this research important?
- c. How can this type of research contribute to the international interests of the U.S.?

III. Connecting STEM research to your goals

- a. Why is international research important in your future career?
- b. How will you use this experience in your future career?

IV. Conclusion

- a. Summarize II in a sentence.
- b. Summarize III in a sentence.
- c. Explain how you will continue STEM research when you return to the U.S.