Catalog Description

A survey of the essentials of biblical Greek. The focus is on basic grammar, vocabulary, and the development of readings skills. (3 semester units)

Prerequisites

None. Undergrads should, however, talk with their advisors if they want to Greek 1-2 to fulfill a foreign language requirement.

Student Learning Objectives

- 1. By the end of the course, the student will be pronouncing all Greek words in sentences out loud with a minimum of 70% accuracy
- 2. By the end of the course, the student will be able to translate 350 Greek vocabulary words into English with a minimum of 70% accuracy
- 3. By the end of the course, the student will be able to parse all the morphological forms of the Greek verb tenses in the indicative and non-indicative moods and translate them into English with a minimum of 70% accuracy
- 4. By the end of the course, the student will be able to translate select Greek passages from the New Testament and translate them into English with a minimum of 70% accuracy
- 5. By the end of the course, the student will be able to evaluate their own English translation for how well it interprets Greek text.

Required Textbooks

Aland, Kurt, et al. The Greek New Testament. 5th rev. ed. United Bible Societies, 2014 [UBS5] [ISBN:9781619701397; ISBN-13: 978161970139]

You must get this Greek NT. Do not get the earlier UBS4 or UBS3. The new edition has a different critical text.

For Mac/Win Users: Tavultesoft's Keyman Greek Classical Keyboard program. Download the following Keyman 14.0 onto your computer (Windoews/macOS): https://keyman.com/14/ Install Keyman keyboard program. Then install the Greek Classical keyboard at http://tavultesoft.com/greek/

Microphone Headset with USB connector (or equivalent):

Since you will be meeting weekly for small group tutorial sessions, you will need to get a headset for use in Zoom video conferencing to reduce feedback. This is required without exception. A cheaper no-name brand can be found here: https://amzn.to/3thb4OC

1. Weekly Homework

Learning a language requires daily study and review. It is very important not to fall behind in your reading or your homework/assignments. You are expected to have assigned materials prepared prior to the beginning of the class.

Each chapter in the textbook by Mounce has a corresponding exercise in the workbook. Continuing with the work done last semester, we will be following a modified version of Track #1 of Mounce's lesson plan. Please complete all assignments in the workbook and hand them in, unless otherwise announced.

When you submit your homework (HW), please upload your HW through the Assignment Gate provided in each Module. I ask that you please use a decent quality scanner. Please do not take a cell phone photo as these are often blurry and hard to read. Submit the HW as a PDF file (there are many free PDF programs). A PDF file will allow me to use a tablet/computer to hand-write or type in comments.

The 2 lowest or missed homework assignments will be dropped (13 - 3 drops = 10 X 10 pts = 100 pts). 9% of your final grade

2. Weekly Quizzes

We will have a quiz every week with very few exceptions. The quiz will cover vocabulary, paradigms, parsing, and translations. The 3 lowest or missed quizzes will be dropped (12 - 3 drops = 9 quizzes X 30 pts each = 270pts total). 27% of your final grade

3. Weekly Homework Tutorial Sessions (

You will meet each week in a 3 groups with a Greek tutor (the instructor of the course will rotate in every week to teach/sit in on a session). The groups will be organized before/during the 1st week of class. Tardies or early departures from the session will be deducted points. More details to come and posted on Canvas (13-3 drops = 10 sessions X 5pts each = 50 pts total). 5% of your final grade

5. Two Exams (= 1 Midterm + 1 Final Exam)

We will have one midterm and a final exam. Greek grammar by nature is accumulative, and so the midterm and final exam will cover all material from day 1 up until the time of the exam.

However, there will be an emphasis on new material introduced since the previous exam. (200pts for the midterm plus 380pts for the final exam = 580pts total). 58% of your final grade

Make-up work

Because of the accumulative nature of a Greek course and the expectation that all students will attend every class session, homework assignments turned in late will be not be accepted. There are no make-up quizzes or exams (and there are no early quizzes or exams). The drop quiz and homework policy is in place to allow for unexpected absences (whether due to illness, or other concerns). If a student is in danger of missing more than 3 quizzes, only then will quizzes be allowed to be made up and this is at the discretion of the instructor.

There will be no make-up final exam, nor allowances made to take early airplane flights home. You must arrange your travel plans around the class and not vice versa.

Greek I and II is taken on a PASS/NOT PASS basis for seminarians. Unless you fill out a petition to take the class for a letter grade, you will automatically be graded on a pass/not pass. This policy is only for seminarians. Undergraduates should take Greek for a letter grade, especially if Greek fulfills a language requirement.

Feedback and Correspondence with the Instructor

The instructor will respond to emails within 24 hours. Generally, the instructor will be offline and not respond to email on Saturday's. That means an email sent on Friday may not receive a reply until Sunday late afternoon or Monday morning at the latest.

Homework / quizzes are graded within a week before the next module ends. E.g., Module 1 homework / quiz will be graded before Module 2 ends (preferably by Friday, latest Monday).

Grading System

The following scale is used for your final grade:

930-1000	A	770-799 C+	600-629	D –
900-929	A-	730-769 C	0-599	F
870-899	$\mathbf{B}+$	700 -729 C – (min	imum passin	ıg)
830-869	В	670-699 D+
800-829	B -	630-669 D

You need to earn a minimum grade of C-(700pts) in order to pass the course. On rare occasions, the above scale may be curved at a later point, but only if the overall class grades are too low, but it is up to the instructor of the course to decide if the final grades should be curved up or not. Just assume no curve will be applied so you will not expect a boost in your scores and be disappointed when it is not given.

Participation

The student is expected to complete each module thoroughly and complete all assessments within the 3 drop policy outlined in the syllabus for homework, quizzes, and audio/video uploads. Interaction with the instructor of the course is primarily through the instructional videos, feedback on all assessments, office hours, the discussion board, and email correspondence. The student is also expected to interact with other classmates and their Greek tutor in weekly sessions through video conferencing. Recommended but not required is student-to-student interaction outside of the tutoring sessions to collaborate on best study techniques, work through difficult problems sets, and receive support in other aspects of the course. Students can use Big Blue Button and the discussion boards to interact freely within one another.

Academic Honesty

In keeping with our Christian heritage and commitment, North Park Theological Seminary is committed to the highest possible ethical and moral standards. Just as we will constantly strive to live up to these high standards, we expect our students to do the same. To that end, cheating of any sort will not be tolerated. Students who are discovered cheating are subject to discipline up to and including failure of a course and expulsion.

Our definition of cheating includes but is not limited to:

- 1. Plagiarism the use of another's work as one's own without giving credit to the individual. This includes using materials from the internet.
- 2. Copying another's answers on an examination.
- 3. Deliberately allowing another to copy one's answers or work.

In the special instance of group work, the instructor will make clear his/her expectations with respect to individual vs. collaborative work. A violation of these expectations may be considered cheating as well. For further information on this subject you may refer to the Academic Dishonesty section of the University's online catalog.

Disability Accommodations

North Park Theological Seminary provides services for students with documented disabilities to ensure equal access to programs, services, facilities, and activities. Students with a disability who believe that they may need accommodations in this class are encouraged to contact Seminary Academic Services as soon as possible. If desired or necessary, discussion pertaining to documentation and accommodation can take place at another suitable location or by telephone. Further information about the American Disabilities Act Services is found in the Student Academic Handbook.

Title IX

Students who believe they have been harassed, discriminated against, or involved in sexual violence should contact the Dean of Students (773-244-5565) or Director of Human Resources (773-244-5599) for information about campus resources and support services, including confidential counseling services. As a member of the North Park faculty, we are concerned about the well-being and development of our students, and are available to discuss any concerns. Faculty are legally obligated to share information with the University's Title IX coordinator in certain situations help ensure that the student's safety and welfare is being addressed, consistent with the requirements of the law. These disclosures include but are not limited to reports of sexual assault, relational/domestic violence, and stalking.
